

Report of Development Control Chair

Development Control Committee is now up and running via remote meetings and we have met twice since the lockdown restrictions were implemented.

The committee dealt with an application for a large 117 unit housing site at the last meeting in June that was approved with conditions.

We are expecting some busy agendas in the coming months as applicants and their agents resume work on progressing schemes across the borough and households put forward their plans for home improvements