(* This does not preclude decisions being made under delegated powers)

Rules and Regulations

6. The Joint Consultative Panel shall meet as and when required. The Chair or Vice-Chair may direct the Joint Secretaries to call a meeting at any time. A meeting shall be called within seven days of the receipt of a requisition signed by not less than one-third of the members of either side. In emergency situations every endeavour shall be made to convene a meeting within three working days of receipt of a request for it. The matters to be discussed at any meeting of the Joint Consultative Panel shall be stated upon the notice summoning the meeting, provided that any other business may be considered if admitted by a majority vote of those present at such meeting.
7. A Quorum for the Joint Consultative Panel shall be one representative from each side.
8. Regarding voting, no resolution shall be regarded as carried unless it has been approved by a majority of each side i.e. both a majority of Members present and Trade Unions present.
9. A failure to agree on a collective issue (i.e. affecting a number of employees) may be referred to the North Western Joint Council for Local Government Services by one side or jointly. In the first instance, the good offices of the Joint Secretaries of the Regional Council will be used to assist the local parties. Before an issue is referred to the Regional Council, the Executive or the Council may refer the matter back to the Joint Consultative Committee for further consideration.
10. The proceedings of any meeting of the Joint Consultative Panel shall be reported to the Executive Member for Resources and Performance Management and the Council's Management Team.
11. The Joint Consultative Panel shall not arrive at any agreement which conflicts with the policy or recommendation of the North Western Joint Council for Local Government Services.
