1.4 The scheme of delegation and executive functions

The Leader may amend the scheme of delegation relating to executive functions at any time during the year.

To do so, the leader must give written notice to the Head of Legal and Democratic Services and to the person, body or committee concerned.

The notice must set out the extent of the amendment to the scheme of delegation, and whether it entails the delegation of the discharge of an executive function not previously delegated, or the transfer of an executive function that has been previously delegated, or the withdrawal of delegation from any Officer, Member, committee or the executive as a whole in order to discharge the delegation personally.

The changes will take effect on receipt of the Leader's written notice by each of the parties affected by a new delegation, transfer or withdrawal.

The Head of Legal and Democratic Services will ensure that a record of the new delegation of an Executive function, of a transfer, or of a withdrawal is entered into the Register of the Delegation of Executive Functions, and will present a report to the next ordinary meeting of the Council setting out a new delegation, transfer or withdrawal made by the leader at the earliest opportunity.

The level of consultation required will be appropriate to the nature of the matter under consideration.

2.5 Who can put items on the executive agenda?

The leader will decide upon the schedule for the meetings of the executive. He/she may put on the agenda of any executive meeting any matter which he/she wishes, whether or not authority has been delegated to the executive, a committee of it or any member or officer in respect of that matter. The Head of Legal and Democratic Services will comply with the leader's requests in this respect.

Any member of the Council may ask the leader to put an item on the agenda of an executive meeting for consideration, and if the leader agrees the item will be considered at the next available meeting of the executive. The notice of the meeting will give the name of the Councillor who asked for the item to be considered. This individual may, at the discretion of the Leader, be invited to attend the meeting, whether or not it is a public meeting and, with the consent of the executive, to speak. However, there may only be up to two items discussed at each executive meeting unless the Leader decides otherwise.

The monitoring officer and/or the chief financial officer may include an item for consideration on the agenda of an executive meeting and may require the Head of Legal and Democratic Services to call a meeting in pursuance of their statutory duties. In other circumstances, where any two of the head of paid service, chief financial officer and monitoring officer are of the opinion that a meeting of the Executive needs to be called to consider a matter that requires a decision, they may jointly include an item on the agenda of an executive meeting. If there is no meeting of the executive soon enough to deal with the issue in question, then the person(s) entitled to include an item on the agenda may also require that a meeting be convened at which the matter will be considered.
